

Life insurance can protect your family's future

Have peace of mind that your loved ones can meet financial obligations, should something unforeseen happen to you.

If you have a spouse/domestic partner and/or children, they may rely on your help in running the household. It's important to take steps to make sure your family would be financially prepared without you to handle expenses like:

- Mortgage or rent payments
- Insurance premiums
- Transportation
- Utilities
- Food
- Childcare/education fees

With group life insurance you receive:

- a wide range of coverage options to fit your needs and budget
- death benefit proceeds that are income tax free to your beneficiary
- underwriting requirements waived for certain amounts

In general, industry experts recommend having enough life insurance to replace 7 years of income.¹

Taking care of everyday living costs is just one thing to consider. Nearly one -in-three Americans think they need more life insurance.¹ Families without adequate life insurance could struggle with longer term expenses like:

- College tuition
- Wedding expenses
- Child or aging parent care
- Retirement

You can better prepare for these longer term expenses by purchasing additional life insurance that goes above your employer-provided coverage. It's important to review your life insurance coverage often, as you experience different life events. Getting married, having children and buying a home ,. could require adding more life insurance protection to your portfolio as your financial commitments change.
